Behavioral Science In Business: Understanding People To Drive Results

Course Introduction

This training Program is designed to help participants discover how they can effectively, efficiently, and ethically influence people's behavior to meet their business objectives and learn how to scale those behavioral science capabilities across their organization. This will help business executives and leaders to leverage behavioral science for their organization.

The last few years have seen an explosion in both the study and effective application of behavioral science — the science that combines applicable insights from the fields of psychology, behavioral economics, and neuroscience. Whether you need to improve employee engagement, encourage changes in the behavior of consumers, coworkers, or clients, or generate improved commercial returns, the ability to effectively, efficiently, and ethically influence people's behavior allows you to better achieve your business objectives and positively impact the bottom line.
