Course Introduction

In today's competitive talent landscape, organizations succeed or fail based on their ability to attract, acquire, and retain top talent. Staffing professionals play a crucial role in shaping workforce strategies, driving organizational agility, and building sustainable talent pipelines.

The Certified Staffing Professional (CSP) program by BOOST is an advanced, practice-oriented training course that equips participants with cutting-edge skills in staffing strategy, workforce planning, candidate sourcing, talent assessment, client management, and regulatory compliance.

Designed for staffing professionals, recruiters, HR practitioners, and talent acquisition leaders, this program provides a deep understanding of how to align staffing practices with organizational strategy, deliver exceptional candidate and client experiences, and manage ethical, compliant hiring processes. Participants will emerge with the ability to drive staffing success at both tactical and strategic levels.
