Negotiation Skills for Key Sales Corporate Clients

Course Introduction

This training program is designed by Boost to equip sales professionals with advanced negotiation capabilities tailored specifically for high-value corporate client engagements. Participants will learn how to navigate complex deals, manage stakeholder dynamics, protect margins, and close strategic agreements with confidence.

Combining negotiation psychology, strategic communication, deal structure analysis, and proven corporate sales tactics, this training provides a multi-dimensional approach to developing advanced negotiators.

Participants will explore both the science and art of negotiation, mastering how to influence high-level stakeholders, align proposals with business needs, resolve conflicts effectively, and build trust-based partnerships that create mutual value.
