Leadership Catalyst: Activating Executive Impact

Course Introduction

Today's organizations require leaders who can do more than manage people and processes—they must inspire direction, accelerate execution, and create measurable business impact. Leadership Catalyst: Activating Executive Impact is designed to help current and emerging leaders transform their leadership approach from operational supervision to strategic influence.

Developed by BOOST Consulting & Training, this program provides participants with practical frameworks to strengthen leadership identity, expand organizational influence, navigate complex business environments, and build high-performing teams capable of sustaining long-term success.

Through practical applications, business simulations, and leadership challenges, participants will develop the mindset and capabilities required to become catalysts for organizational growth, innovation, and sustainable performance.
